Re: Capitol Records, LLC v. ReDigi Inc.
Case No. 12-cv-0095 (RJS) (AJP)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We are the attorneys for defendant ReDigi Inc. ("ReDigi") in the above-referenced case.

We regret to report that the status quo has been gravely threatened, in that Rdio, Inc., the company which licensed ReDigi to post links to its 30-second clips, yesterday, at approximately 4:00 p.m., terminated ReDigi's access to the site without notice, presumably at the behest of plaintiff and/or others acting with them, thus making it impossible for ReDigi to carry on with its business normally. Apparently, having been denied an injunction, they have sought to use extrajudicial tactics to accomplish what they were unable to obtain in a court of law.

In accordance with section 2(A) of Your Honor's Individual Practices, we are requesting a pre-motion conference regarding a motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction towards reinstatement of the Rdio licenses, and for leave to amend the answer to include counterclaim(s).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Ray Beckerman
